

Legacy of Leadership Award Isle Of Man

Individual Excellence Award

Women in Public Sector / Government Leadership Award

OVERVIEW

The Women in Public Sector / Government Leadership Award honours exceptional women who are transforming public services, influencing policy, or leading civic innovation within government or public-sector institutions. These leaders demonstrate unwavering commitment to public good, transparency, and social impact, often in complex and high-responsibility environments.

..

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to women-identifying professionals in government, civil services, law enforcement, education boards, public health, or policy-making includes elected officials, senior bureaucrats, public administrators..

QUALITATIVE CRITERIA

- Dedication to policy transformation or institutional reform
- Addressing inequalities, improving access to services, or crisis response
- Collaboration with diverse communities and sectors
- Mentorship or advocacy for women in government roles

METRICS

..	Metrics Criteria	Current Year	Previous Year
	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Size or scope of reforms (number of citizens affected, funds managed)• Service delivery efficiency metrics (wait times, cost savings, coverage)

Our Sponsors :

JUDGING CRITERIA

- Governance Impact: Reforms, efficiency, or transparency improvements
- Civic Innovation: Programs or systems that improved public life
- Leadership & Ethics: Integrity, resilience, and ability to lead through challenges
- Community Engagement: Public outreach, inclusion, and stakeholder responsiveness

..

